Nazis Scatter Air Raids Over English Towns

LONDON, July 31.—(CP)—British fighters swept across the channel in the direction of Dunkirk this morning in a resumption of daylight raids on the occupied French coast after a night of scattered German bombing attacks against Britain.

Nazi planes also were active over the channel during the forenoon and heavy anti-aircraft fire was audible for several minutes on the outskirts of London, which had two quick alarms during the night—the fifth and sixth of the week.

The gunfire sent shoppers in the capital scurrying for cover, but ground watchers spotted no enemy planes over the city.

Eight towns in the Midlands were hit with high explosives and incendiaries by the German night raiders, who followed the usual practice of lighting up the target area with flares before unleashing their bombs.

BIRMINGHAM HIT

One Midlands town had its first real raid of the war. In a second, well-known church was damaged and in a third, low-flying planes machine-gunned the streets.

The Berlin radio also said Birmingham was the object of the Midlands attack.

Eight of the raiders were shot down by British defenses and a ninth was destroyed over its base in occupied France by an R.A.F. fighter, a communique said.

Bad weather apparently kept the R.A.F. bombing squadrons from attacking Germany during the night, interrupting an offensive which had seen British bombers over the Reich on seven of the 31 preceding nights.

OTHER ATTACKS

While the Midlands bore the brunt of the attack on Britain, which the communique said was met on a heavy scale, bombs also were dropped over East Anglia, the south coast and other widely separated points.

A number of casualties occurred in the West Midlands town where seven persons were trapped in a shelter crushed by a direct bomb hit. Casualties elsewhere, however, apparently were light.

The attack of Central America used cocoa beans in place of money.

HUNDREDS SURRENDER

Italians Panic-Stricken In Retreat

By HENRY T. GORRELL
WITH NEW ZEALAND FORCES IN EGYPT, July 31.—(BUP)—Over several square acres of the ridge called Alam el Halfa, the southern end of the Egyptian front that stretches from El Alamein to the Gattara depression, are burned-out Italian trucks and tanks and the human, personal debris of war such as shirts, coats, trousers, socks and blankets scattered in panic by their fleeing owners.

It was here that the New Zealanders, with a spectacular bayonet charge at night, routed the Italians a few weeks ago to turn the tide of the great Axis push toward Alexandria and Suez.

Two battalions of New Zealanders and Major natives, chasing blood-curdling battle cries, had charged the Italian artillery regiments toward the southern end of the ridge.

They captured 44 heavy anti-aircraft guns and hundreds of prisoners.

EXCLUSIVE

ment in the face of point blank fire. They captured 44 heavy anti-aircraft guns and hundreds of prisoners.

DIDN'T FIGHT FIGHT

Officers of the troops that participated said that even before the New Zealanders reached the gun posts, hundreds of Italians came streaming toward them with their hands up.

I followed the retreat of Italian forces at Gattara in the Spanish civil war and at Premont in the Italian army's retreat from the front.

The Italians made no effort to salvage their equipment and cases of shells and grenades lay scattered along the hill trenches among the clothing and personal effects of the soldiers.

Since that battle, Field Marshal Erwin Rommel has replaced the Italians with German troops on this sector as he has all along the front except in the extreme south.

Alberta District News In Brief

Officer Class Graduates At Red Deer Camp

RED DEER—Many people from Red Deer and district were present at the Royal Canadian Army Service Training Centre for graduation ceremonies of the officer's class this week. Before presentation of the certificates there was an interesting demonstration of the work of the training centre.

Squad members in different types of equipment displayed all the varied weapons used by the R.C.A.S.C. in the field. New features which had not been seen at previous graduation ceremonies included a drill by the motor transport section, a musical ride on motorcycles by eight members of this section, and a display of pyrotechnics by members of the class of Physical Training instructors.

The commandant of the centre, Lt.-Col. J. Burton-Willson, V.D., presented the certificates to members of the graduating class. He also presented a Long Service Medal to Major P. R. Beare, a member of the training centre staff. Major Beare received the medal for 20 years service in the active militia and the Canadian army. He has served overseas with the Canadian forces in the present war and has now returned to take up duty at the training centre. Col. Burton-Willson also presented certificates to six officers who had qualified earlier.

After the presentations, the battalion which was drawn up facing the saluting base, marched past in column of section first, and again in column of route. Group Captain B. H. Farrington, D.S.O., officer commanding No. 36 Service Flying Training School, Royal Air Force, Pembroke, took the salute. Major C. E. Ball, V.D., was in charge of the parade, and the centre band, led by Bandmaster W. Hayward, played during the afternoon.

Following the graduation ceremonies there was a demonstration at the School of Cookery. Here the visitors had an opportunity to sample some of the wares turned out by a graduation class.

Cloudburst Hits Rimbey District
RIMBEY—A regular cloudburst on Tuesday afternoon, which hit two miles west and stretched off to the mountains, made roads leading into Rimbey from that direction impossible and was the cause of cancellation of the meeting held for the local community last night by R. E. Anley, M.L.A.

A fair sized crowd waited long and patiently for the speaker who, after the cancellation of the meeting, was spending the time getting his car out of a series of mud ruts. Another heavy shower on Wednesday morning did not improve matters.

Bus Catches Fire During Ponoka Stop

PONOKA—The 311 bus, Calgary-bound, was the cause of considerable excitement Wednesday morning. Arriving on time, passengers and driver were in a hot-tempered mood when a fire broke out from the rear of the bus.

Flashed to the fire, the chemical truck of the fire department brought the blaze under control.

Passengers were transferred to a bus from Red Deer and proceeded to Calgary.

Underestimated origin, the fire caused only minor damage. A Calgary fire truck, summoned from Edmonton, was able to drive the bus back to the depot following a three-hour delay for repairs. It was agreed that a tragic accident may have been averted had the fire occurred while the bus was in the depot.

Beaux' Beau Expenditure On Agriculture Increased

OTTAWA, July 31.—(CP)—Conservative House Leader Hanson told the House of Commons yesterday that the Maritime Provinces people felt a "gratitude" about the government's expenditures on western agriculture as compared with similar expenditures in the east.

He made reference to the failure of the government to make any claim on the Nova Scotia-New Brunswick border.

Mr. Hanson made a general attack upon the government's methods of presenting estimates for non-essential expenditures for approval at the forty-eighth hour of a ten-day session.

Mr. Hanson spoke during continuing estimates of fisheries and marine services. He pointed out that public works, national war services and post office before the 4 p.m. adjournment.

There was one instance of a reduction in the estimates when War Services Minister Thorson cut $100,000 from the Canadian Travel Bureau reduced to $200,000 because of the wartime restrictions on travel and tourist business.

Mr. Hanson complained that the government, instead of reducing non-war expenditures was actually increasing them.

He said that the government was not doing enough to help the farmers who were suffering from the effects of the war.

Air Mail Business Greatly Improved

OTTAWA, July 31.—(CP)—Postmaster-General Mulock said yesterday in the house of commons that Canada's air mail business is showing "wonderful improvement" and promises to be "a very profitable thing for the people of Canada."

Mr. Mulock, answering criticism of air mail advertising distributed by his department, said the advertising appropriation for air mail was only $15,000 a year and the total department advertising appropriation was only $20,000. "On a business which will run between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000," he said.

Earlier yesterday The Canadian Press erroneously reported that Mr. Mulock had told the house Canada's air mail business was earning close to $55,000,000 a year.

Once a powerful empire, Turkey declined beginning in 1340 and was known as the "sick man of Europe."

Here's How To Grease Skids Under Axis

GREASE REACHES RENDERING PLANT

GREASE GOES INTO COOKER

THEN THROUGH FILTER MACHINE

SOAP GLYCERINE AND PRETTY GIRL

U.S. housewives can help win the war right in their own kitchens by saving meat drippings, deep frying fats and other grease for conversion into soap and glycerine.

Cans of kitchen grease turned in to meat dealers are collected and sent to a rendering plant where the fat undergoes numerous chemical treatments before emerging at a munitions plant as highly explosive nitroglycerine.

Melted grease is poured into a cooker where it is boiled several hours to free foreign material, which settle at the bottom of the vat. The clear fluid is mixed with a powdered chemical and piped into a filter apparatus for its final bath, winding up as a water-clear liquid.

The grease is mixed with a lye solution at one of the nation's big soap factories, it separates into soap and glycerine. Mildred Mihavole of Cleveland holds the results of this processing: a bar of soap and tubes of crude and refined glycerine, the base for many explosives.

Man Collapses From No Food: Had $1236.88

Vancouver, July 31.—(CP)—A seventy-four-year-old man who gave his name as R. Hammond collapsed on a downtown Vancouver street last night and was taken to hospital, apparently suffering from malnutrition.

A search of his clothing revealed that he was carrying $1236.88.

Payment of 100 per cent. excess profits tax on heavy crops this year would make it difficult if not impossible for them to pay taxes incurred in less favorable years.

In a brief discussion on the succession duty amendment Senator C. W. Robinson (Lib., New Brunswick), suggested action should be taken to consolidate provincial and dominion succession duties.

Senator Louis Cole (Cons., Ontario), said the tax should not be imposed on money made available by employers for the purpose of aiding a widow in the case of an employee's death.

U.S. Vessel Sunk In Shell, Torpedo Attack By U-Boat

WASHINGTON, July 31.—(AP)—The navy announced yesterday that a medium-sized United States merchant ship was torpedoed, shelled and sunk July 9 in the Atlantic 1,000 miles off the northern coast of South America. Survivors have been landed at an east coast port.

Secret Soviet Defence Plans Told Hopkins

PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—(AP)—Premier Stalin "unlocked the inner chamber of Soviet defence secrets" for Harry Hopkins, personal adviser to President Roosevelt, a year ago this month, and promised to "stand firm against Nazi aggression," an article in the August issue of the Ladies Home Journal relates.

The article, entitled "How War Came," and written by Forrest Davis and Ernest E. Lindley, Hopkins first communicated the vital secret information to the president, who passed it on to Prime Minister Churchill in their historic Atlantic conference.

LEADERS ELATED

"The president, optimistic by nature," the article continues, "received the detailed circumstantial news of the magnitude of Russia's forces and her effort with something like elation. Churchill, too, was rejoiced."

But the writers add, Anglo-American military and naval leaders at the conference "still dazzled by Brauchitsch's find it hard to accept Stalin's announcement that the Nazis could not take Moscow in 1941."

Field Marshal Walter von Brauchitsch was former commander-in-chief of the German army.

By the third day of the meeting, however, the article says "it was agreed that Russia, by holding out through the winter, would enormously assist the western power."

The article relates that Mr. Churchill first suggested that Hopkins go to Russia at his second visit to London in July, 1941. President Roosevelt approved and Hopkins arrived in Moscow a year ago tonight.

REVEALED MIGHT

In two sessions at the Kremlin, Stalin paraded "before Hopkins" automated sight of endless tables, charts, reports and other evidence of Russian armed and industrial might.

"Quotes Stalin as saying: 'They will never get to Moscow this year,' and says Hopkins was inclined to agree."

Six Irishmen To Hang For Slaying Police Constable

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, July 31.—(CP)—Shooting "we are not afraid to die," six men—the youngest 18 and the oldest 21—were sentenced to death yesterday after being convicted of the murder last April of Constable Patrick Murphy. They will be hanged Aug. 10.

After sentence was passed the men cried: "God Save Ireland—The Republic."

Police said they were members of the outlawed Irish Republican army.

Murphy, riding in a police car on a patrol designed to prevent I.R.A. demonstrations on Easter Sunday, was shot five times when a gang ambushed the car.

One youth was alleged to have said later that the shooting was a protest against British forces "occupying" Ireland.

New Australian Tank Is Superior U.S. Officers Say

SYDNEY, Australia, July 31.—(CP)—United States officers Wednesday declared tanks built in New South Wales are "superior to tanks of corresponding weight and armament used by the United States, British and German armies."

The tanks were designed by Col. W. D. Watson of the British army, an expert on tank design loaned to Australia by the war office 18 months ago.

The new tank has been thoroughly tested. One United States army officer said "it is a very good tank incorporating the very pick of the world's ideas in design and manufacture."

West Seed Grain Advances 'Doleful'

OTTAWA, July 31.—(CP)—The House of Commons last night heard the "doleful story" of western seed grain advances, some of which went back 50 years.

Resources Minister Cresser spoke of the advances under an item in his departmental estimates providing $52,500 for land registry, seed collections, administration or ordnance, admiralty and public lands.

Mr. Cresser said the story of the seed grain advances by the Dominion government had given assistance in seeking to obtain collection for the Dominion and boards had been set up on the prairie provinces to pass upon the arrears. Where there was no possibility of recovery they were written off—and we are writing them off continuously."

Seed grain liens were a charge against the land which benefitted from the seed. When the owner of the land died, the lien was a "cloud" on the title until the matter had been cleared up.

Cuba has 20,000 men in the army, navy and coast guard, plus 30,000 reservists.

VICTORY THROUGH AIR POWER

By Alexander P. de Seversky

• Terror from above! Ruined factories!
Wrecked railroads! Blasted cities!

Are these coming to North America—or are we going to wake up and deliver them
to our enemies?

Seversky's book is dynamite. Its explosion sets earthbound minds reeling. Like sweeping aside a curtain this great aviation fighter-designer shows a view of terror and strength for North America RIGHT NOW. After reading it you'll ask yourself: "How could I have been so blind in the past? Why don't we act now?" The handwriting on the wall is plain for anyone who can realize that the ocean of air covers every place and that bombs fall down. It's only a question of who seizes control first . . . we or the Axis!

When will this war end? How much longer must we struggle against distance and centrally located foes? Is victory through air power tomorrow's dream or today's possibility? Read this book and you'll think in a way that you never have before. You'll be a part of the new world that is already here if we only know it.

The Edmonton Bulletin has brought its readers many great books—but never one so charged with smashing importance as "Victory Through Air Power" is in the crucial summer of 1942!

"His book might become a turning point in the war!"

New York Herald-Tribune

"A timely and terrible book. A more crucially vital subject has rarely been discussed with a more staggering array of authoritative facts and opinions. A sensational book and a clarion alarm."

NEW YORK TIMES

"All I can do is to suggest that it is the duty of every adult citizen to ponder its message."

CLIFTON FADMAN

"No one can afford henceforth to believe he is thinking about the war if he has not read carefully, and opened his mind fully to what Major Seversky has to say."

WALTER LIPPMANN

"Into a new book, Major Seversky has crammed much knowledge and a limitless faith in the airplane. It's a blast of criticism which is heard all too seldom in a country at war."

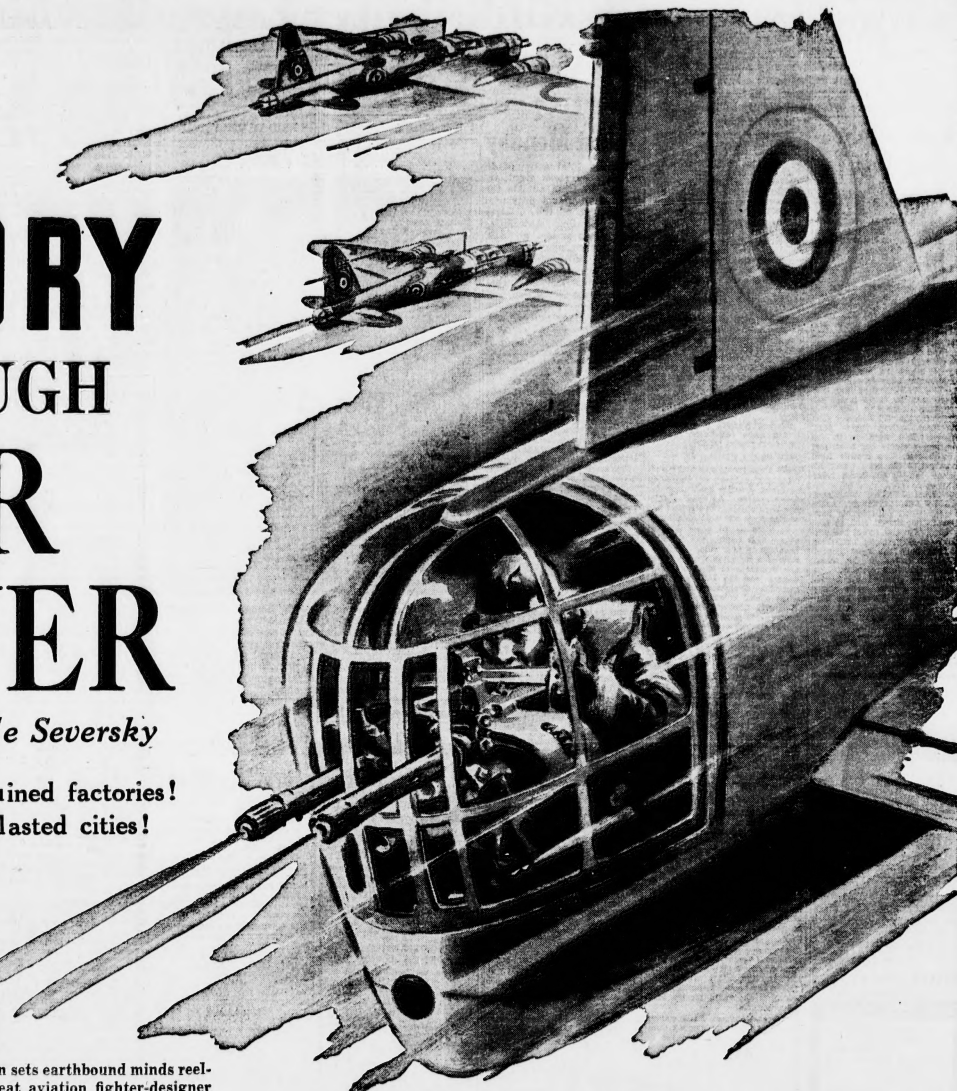

TIME MAGAZINE

"In my opinion this book is more important to Americans than all other war books put together!"

CHARLES A. BEARD

"This powerful and angry book says what I have heard men and officers of the United Nations say to each other day after day in China and Burma, 'Where are our planes?' . . . 'without an air force an army has no eyes.'" de Seversky answers these Questions!

CLARE BOOTH

How good are American airplanes?
Why could the British navy not stop the Germans in Norway?
Who was responsible for the miracle of Dunkirk?
Why did the Luftwaffe flop over Britain after smashing France?
What was wrong with German planes in 1940?
Can an American air force overcome Germany and Japan alone?
Can super bombers blast across the oceans?

Why did the German air force disappear in Russia?
New engines? Rocket planes? Larger cannon? Armored planes?
Can any surface forts or barriers alone halt conquest?
How hot is the Stuka dive bomber?
Can air power alone destroy an enemy?
Can German air power smash American industry?
Is a navy of aircraft carriers really strong?

Major Alexander de SEVERSKY

Major Alexander P. de Seversky was born in Russia in 1884. Through his daring military exploits he became the leading Russian ace of the Naval Air Force and received all the honors that his native land could bestow. In 1918, as a result of his technical contributions to the progress of aviation, he was selected as a member of the Russian Naval Aviation Mission to the United States.

After Russia dropped out of the war, he offered his services to the United States Government and was appointed aeronautical engineer and test pilot for the government, in which capacity he served until the Armistice.

In 1921 he acted in an advisory capacity to the late General William F. Mitchell during the latter's demonstration of the ability of aircraft to sink battleships. As a result of this work, he was appointed consulting engineer to the War Department by the Secretary of War.

In 1927 he became an American citizen and was commissioned a major in the U.S. Air Corps Specialist Reserve the following year. Major de Seversky designed the world's first fully automatic bomb-aimer.

In 1931 he founded the Seversky Aircraft Corporation, of which he was president and director for more than seven years. This company has been engaged in building some of America's best pursuit airplanes. He designed and built the fastest amphibian plane in the world, and the first low-wing basic training airplane for the U.S. Army Air Corps. He also pioneered in high-altitude combat tactics by developing and building the first turbo-supercharged, air-cooled engine fighter.

Major de Seversky holds numerous world's speed records and in December of 1940 he was presented with the coveted Harmon trophy by President Roosevelt for his outstanding achievements in the field of aviation.

EFFECTIVE, AUG. 1

Government Orders

Highway Preservation Aim Far-Reaching Act States Hon. W. A. Fallow

Reduction by 50 per cent of the pay, or freight-load on all trucks travelling over Alberta highways will become effective Saturday, Aug. 1 and will continue until further notice. It was announced by Hon. W. A. Fallow, minister of public works.

Back On Duty

Engineers of the public works department will observe the effect of the reduced loads on the highways and if further reduction is necessary, then it will be put into effect. The order is applicable to all highways.

The enabling order-in-council said Mr. Fallow, states that on the surface highways, all trucks will have to possess a scale ticket showing the weight of the load being carried.

Under the order the maximum load permitted for the largest trucks will be 20,000 pounds. The pulling of two-wheeled trailers behind the truck is prohibited under the new order.

These regulations are being put into effect after the most careful consideration and to preserve our highways, Mr. Fallow.

"Our engineers will observe the results of the 50 per cent decrease in payloads and if the highways show any signs of disintegration, the measures will be taken to further reduce the loads."

Mr. Fallow pointed out that owing to the fact that the volume of oil available for highway maintenance, was greatly reduced.

HAS BEEN CONSIDERED
The Alberta Highway Traffic Act has been given serious consideration to ways and means of preventing damage to the highways and the present order is the result. Revenue from the heavy truck traffic, said Mr. Fallow, does not come anywhere near meeting the damage done to the highways by them.

Mr. Fallow was a visitor on Friday to the Vermilion district, where he had gone on government business.

University To Aid Technical War Students

Seeking to meet the war needs for men and women trained in science and engineering, the University of Alberta on Friday announced special facilities for assisting students in obtaining required educational standing to embark in such work.

Dr. Robert Newton, president of the University, on Friday released information prepared by the University and issued by the department of education, setting forth the need for science and engineering students and assistance which may be given them.

The information is specially directed to Grade XII students of the province.

"We are faced with a serious shortage of technically trained men and women to support Canada's war effort," said Dr. Newton. "High school students who have completed their matriculation with good standing in science and mathematics should consider carefully their duty to their country in this emergency. Even one or two years' training at the university may equip them for much needed service."

TO GUIDE STUDENTS

"The National Selective Service and the Wartime Bureau of Technical Personnel are planning to guide students in engineering, chemistry, physics, and mathematics, whether they are preparing themselves for the armed services or for war industries. During the summer vacation period suitable employment along with their training is being sought for them."

Many Wives Are Jealous Of Husbands' Relatives

There is Nothing a Man Can Do About It Except Be Patient and Hope For the Best

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a young man of 22, married and love my wife very much. We get along fine except she is insanely jealous over my mother and father. She accuses them of having secrets with her. I have not of giving them money, when I have not given them a penny since I have been married. All that I want to give my parents is the love and the little attentions they deserve.

I love my mother and father, but her first not only to love them, but in everything else, it is there on which I can make my wife see that my relationship to my parents is simply that of a good son, and it does not in any way conflict with my relationship to her.

Answer: If anyone has ever found a cure for jealousy, I have never heard of it. One would think that the best way to deal with it would be to make the afflicted one see how silly and unreasonable their suspicions are, but unfortunately those who are green-eyed have lost the power to see anything straight, and they are not amenable to reason. So there you are.

You can swear by all your gods to your wife that you love her better than you do your mother and father, tell her that you love her left them to live with her should be sufficient proof that you prefer her to them. You can tell her every cent you make in her name so that she can know that you are not giving any money to her father and mother. You can try to make her see how foolish it is for her to imagine that you and your parents have any axe to grind with her. But it will be in vain. She will not be able to return her original grievance, which she manufactured out of whole cloth, and resume her favorite diversion, which is torturing the one she pretends to love.

MANY WIVES ARE JEALOUS

It is a common thing for wives to be jealous of their husbands' parents, and especially of their husbands' mothers. They cannot bear to think that their husbands have any life in which they (the wives) did not have a part. Nor that their husbands have any affection for anyone but them. They don't stop to consider what sort of a poor creature a man would be who would hate to love the mother who bore him, and the father who had helped to give him and educate him and support him at the start in the world.

Minute Make-Ups

My sister and I would like to have some stationery printed that we could both use. What would you suggest?

Answer:—If you and your sister want a plain, formal letter paper, I would suggest a white paper printed in black ink, with your address at the center top of the folded sheet.

If your home is informal or you live in the country, you may reflect this in your letter paper. Use a titled paper, perhaps a gray or tan, and have the name of your country place, and the address at the top of the page. You may even have a tiny drawing, like a sign-board, on which is printed the name of your country home. Narrow colored borders to match the ink are most attractive on informal paper.

SYLVAN RETREAT FROM HEAT OF SUMMER'S SUN

Giant azaleas and rhododendrons flank this garden pool, forming a pretty setting against the green of flowering shrubs and trees and the sweep of emerald lawns for this cool summer retreat. With wartime restrictions on tires and gasoline forcing citizens to remain near at home this year, gardens are proving to hold all the enchantment and beauty of summer heretofore enjoyed at beaches and mountain resorts.

McKenney On Bridge

By WILLIAM MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

Here is a trap bid I saw recently. Don't give up the untrick, the players wanted to know whose fault it was that they had reached four no trump instead of stopping at three.

DEAR MISS DIX: How can I tell my husband, who has once been unfaithful to me, is true to me now? I am going crazy with the uncertainty about it.

A WIFE

Answer: You can't. All you can do is to shut your eyes and your fingers for luck and hope for the best. But it may comfort you to know that many men who take an excursion down the primrose path find that there were more than three roses on it and come back home chastened and disillusioned, and never afterward stray out of their own backyards.

What To Do

In my opinion South was at fault. In his bid of three diamonds North has suggested no trump and must be assumed to hold a double stopper in diamonds, together with the ace of hearts. That is the minimum on which he can properly bid two no trump. If he is any stronger, it doesn't matter what South bids, as North will stick to no trump anyhow.

But if North has the minimum, he is in doubt whether the spades are adequately stopped. South has a high honor in the suit. Why should he bid the diamonds, just to show that he has them, and thus by inference deny help in spades? If North lacks the ace or queen-jack of spades, he cannot return to no trump without making a bad bid.

As it was, North was on the spot after three diamonds. If South held a real two-stopper, three no trump ought to lose after a spade opening, but the diamond might be made. He cautiously assisted diamonds and South tried to correct his error too late, by bidding his spade stopper to give North the choice of four no trump or five diamonds.

Study Efficient Touch Typing at home

Chart Makes System Easy

The girl who can type well will get on in business. Come and try typing with just a book and a trick. It's knowing the fast and accurate touch system—which you can start learning at home with a chart of the typewriter keys.

As you see in our picture, the chart shows the "guide keys" (A, S, D, F and J, K, L) in black, and the other keys in white. Your fingers always return to these guide keys after typing other keys.

Of course you know there are four rows of keys. The chart divides these into areas, one for each finger, indicated by the numbers 1, 2, 3, 4. For instance, Number 4 is the little finger type A (guide key), Q above it and Z below it.

Your fingers get used to their positions and areas in a very short time. You don't need to look at the keys any more — you can type with eyes on copy!

Our 30-page booklet, a home course in touch typewriting, includes chart of keys and exercises for speed and accuracy. Explains how to operate typewriter; good lessons in typing business, social, official letters and tables of statistics. Can serve as a foundation for a business college course.

Send 50c in coins for your copy of "Touch Typing with Ease." Write to The Edith Thomas Wallace Typing School, 60 Front St. West, Toronto, Ont. Be sure to write clearly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED
The baby who is half starved has a number of ways of advertising his needs if his mother will only give heed to them. Unfortunately he will fail to gain or will gain slowly. If he is put on a good scales one week, his gain may vary from week to week but it will be in a steadily ascending arc. If he gains less than 5 to 6 ounces a week the first six months and 3 to 4 the second six months, don't put too much stock in his resemblance to a thin relative. Don't say, "He's growing so rapidly," for if he were he might look like that.

Take it for granted that if he has enough to eat he isn't going to be chronically grumpy and grouchy. Well-nourished babies don't act that way. If he's thin and jumpy and cries easily don't blame his thinness on his activity. It's the other way around. He's one of those babies who can't be still, needs a good cry, and then he's all right, just because he needs more food on him. It's those fat babies who sleep long and live life when awake.

If he's lacking in enough good food to provide plenty of refuse to secrete, he'll tend to be constipated. Not just infrequent stools—even a well-fed baby may have those—but hard, dry stools as well. Those in a firm, sticky infant have a significance which cannot be ignored.

Sometimes, just the opposite condition seems to prevail; the baby has thin watery stools, a little spit in each diaper. These may be greenish or brownish-green and, when not coupled with any signs of much or too little to eat, indicate a meager diet. When the gain is low and the baby is not able and unhappy, these stools should be a warning symptom.

Obviously, it's only the mother who sees in these conditions something which needs correction, who will take her problem to the doctor for confirmation of her fears. Knowledge that such symptoms cannot be blamed upon teeth, or relatives or rapid growth is wholesome for the parent.

An accurate scale, which measures the baby's gain each week, will be the first indication of a slipping diet.

Overfeeding and underfeeding may help the mother decide whether her baby is getting too much or too little to eat. It may be had by sending a 3-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Instead of a hat, an "echo" is worn in the hair. The one shown is a bow of the same braid that trims the coat.

GAY ADDITION TO SUMMER WARDROBE

Miss Hindle, Mr. R. Murphy Are Married

Quiet simplicity characterized the pretty wedding ceremony in Highland United church on Thursday evening, when Grace Elizabeth Hindle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Murphy, was united in marriage with Robert Earl Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Murphy. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. J. W. McLeod.

Bouquets of brightly-hued autumn blossoms were used throughout the church in setting for the ceremony.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She wore an afternoon dress of Alaba blue lace, designed with a long train, and a full gathered skirt. Her only accessory was a strand of pearls, and she wore a shoulder veil of matching blue tulle.

Hindle pledged vows with Robert Earl Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Murphy. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. J. W. McLeod.

The bride's bouquet was a shoulder corsage of red roses and sweet peas.

Miss Lenore Moir was the bride's only attendant. Her frock of dusky rose silk was in delicate contrast to the blue of the bride's ensemble.

Mr. Jack Smith was best man. Raymond Longmuir was usher.

Following the ceremony, a reception to about 40 guests was held at the Corona hotel.

Wife Of Wartime Prices And Trade Board Head Kept Busy Running Canteens For War Workers

OTTAWA, July 31.—All across Canada women are anxious to do their bit. In Ottawa, Mrs. Donald Gordon, wife of the assistant head of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, gives a fine example of what can be done through volunteer effort. She is young, dark-haired, efficient, and does a full-time job of running two canteens for war workers.

Naive Gordon could be called a dynamo in skirts. She seems to have the money sense of a successful business acumen. Up to times every day, she has breakfast with her two little boys, and goes straight out to the temporary war buildings at the National Research Council, where the two canteens are situated. There she studies food costs, directs the workers, takes a hand in cooking plans the menus and does the bookkeeping for the canteen which is run in aid of the Women's Auxiliary.

The "Eight Belles" was opened in April, 1941, and it serves 1,000 people a day. The government donated the room and equipment cost $3,827. In the first six weeks $4,448 profit was made and within the year, the equipment was paid for and $1,900 was turned over to the Navy's Auxiliary.

For this record it is easy to see why Mrs. Gordon is so popular with the canteens six days a week and does the week-end record hour in.

war work, was quite nonplussed one day when his mother asked him, "Aren't you going to the Red Cross today, Mummy?" He asked, "Have they killed Hitler?" His mother certainly wasn't sure they had, for dynamo though she appears to be, she does get tired and says that she and her husband have neither the time nor the energy nowadays to go to parties.

"Night life is pretty well 'out' for the Gordons for the duration."

However, "Matter"—for that is what thousands of Ottavians call her—feels that her job is useful and is full of appreciation of the volunteers and of the loyal service given the canteens by the few paid employees, who work with her.

Officials Tell
Young People
Finish School

Alberta department of education officials are advising young people to finish school.

The department is taking a long term view, with the full knowledge that the best interests of the state will be served by students taking on industrial work at this time.

Education officials point to the situation that will likely exist immediately after the war when there may be thousands of people without employment. Education now will prepare these young men and women to meet the situation that will likely develop in the post-war years. It is contended.

In a statement released Friday by the department, officials said:

SHOULD ATTEND SCHOOL

"All students who possibly can should attend school. For those who cannot attend regular classes the correspondence branch of the department offers courses from Grade one to Grade 12."

"If you wish to resume your studies after school, you should contact the Director of the Correspondence School, Department of Education, Edmonton, or get in touch with your school or superintendent of your school division."

South City Limits

Just south of the city on the Calgary highway, on Sunday last, was a six-foot model airplane belonging to H. Boushey, 100 street.

The plane has been missing all week and Mr. Boushey is very anxious to get it back.

When last seen the plane was about 4 miles east of the city and about 100 feet in the air.

Anyone having knowledge of the whereabouts of the plane is requested to contact Mr. Boushey at the above address.

SIGNS IN LONDON

Believe Russ Indicate

Time Ripe For Invasion

By ROBERT BUNNELL

LONDON, July 31.—(AP)—The "guessed pace" of British and American offensive preparations in the theatre of the constant conference of Allied war leaders were viewed in London as indications that the Russians have made it plain they think the time is ripe for a diversionary action against the Germans in western Europe.

Discussion of such action was lent urgency by reports from continental sources of new German attempts to capitalize on Russia's situation and drive a wedge between the Allies by separate peace feelers.

Soviet Ambassador Ivan Maisky was said to have given a frank appraisal of Russia's military condition in a closed all-party session of members of parliament yesterday.

On the same day, according to reports, Soviet ambassador in Washington, Maxim Litvinov, was said to have visited the White House.

While some persons believed London and Washington had been long shouldered by reports from continental sources of new German attempts to capitalize on Russia's situation and drive a wedge between the Allies by separate peace feelers.

Some observers were of the opinion that a land diversion in the west and solution of the Murek supply route troubles would be identical—establishing a bridgehead in Scandinavia to permit the Russian army to move along the coast.

Offensive planning was said to be taking into account the danger that too long a delay in action might force the Russians to use their reserves so that they would be unable to meet a possible Allied victory drive got started.

Responsible foreign sources with confidential connections said they had heard that the German high command was planning to smash the Red army by next winter unless something unforeseen should happen.

FURTHER STEPS

These sources said that, with this in mind, the German high command could hold Russia and all occupied countries in check with a maximum of 100 divisions and have 100 divisions (1,500,000 men or more) for other steps.

A smash through the Middle East to drive the Allies out of North Africa, the Balkans, and Asia Minor and isolate Russia and India.

Defence of Western Europe against Allied invasion, and finally, invasion of Britain to end the war.

However, one foreign source who would not permit himself to be identified said the Germans already had begun to tender new peace feelers. They said, were seeking to get Britain and the United States to leave Russia to the Japanese formations were completely broken up in this Allied offensive, described by a leading quarters commander as a piece of brilliant interpretation.

In other threats at the Commonwealth, nine high-flying Japanese bombers, made the first attack of the war on Port Hedland, small freight port southwest of Broome, in Western Australia, causing slight damage and one casualty, and made full, simultaneous night attack on Horn Island, in the Torres strait.

Keeping up their own offensive operations, Allied heavy bombers pounded the destroyer-carrier off Japan transport 100 miles off Gona Mission, Papua, and scored five direct hits, leaving the vessel flaming flames visible for 30 miles.

Then the destroyer escort was machine-gunned from low level and her anti-aircraft guns silenced.

Credit League Discussion At Red Deer Meet

Formation of a provincial credit union league will be discussed at a meeting to be held in Red Deer on Sept. 20, in Calgary, about 14 S.C. unions attended a meeting in the provincial building on Wednesday night, to discuss the formation of this league. The meeting, called by the Calgary credit unions' officers' association, was called after a proposal advanced from Edmonton unions.

Before the discussion started, the meeting heard W. B. Tenney of Seattle, field secretary of the Credit Union National Association, outline the purposes and problems of a league. He said he felt there would be a new economic order after the war and credit unions would have a "definite place in it."

He explained the loan protection insurance of the association which would be guaranteed to pay the unpaid balance of a credit union member's loan if he died or was disabled. He said it was the only insurance company operating in the United States which would be deductible from compulsory savings, which start Oct. 1.

A Credit Union League of Alberta was formed last October, but it had been active, some Calgary members said they thought it was dead. They therefore were backing a move to form a chapter of Calgary unions, with the formation of a provincial league to come later.

Mr. Tenney said formation of a provincial league did not necessarily need to precede organization of the provincial league.

Before the Sept. 3 meeting, Calgary unions will decide in action in whether they favor joining a league and whether they want a city chapter.

Presides

F. J. Fitzpatrick, chairman of the Edmonton Credit Union Officers' Association, who addressed a meeting at Calgary this week that laid plans for the formation of a provincial Credit Union League. Discussion on it will take place at Red Deer, Sept. 20.

University To Aid Technical War Students

Continued from Page Eleven training would be found for them, and this would also afford an opportunity to earn money towards the cost of their next year at the university.

"Students who cannot afford to enter the first year of the university for lack of finances may, if their high school record is satisfactory, secure a grant or loan to help them to do so. The Dominion Department of Labor and the provincial department of education have jointly made available a fund out of which some forty of this year's matriculants in Alberta (both men and women) may receive help of this kind. Such grants or loans are available to students entering colleges in mathematics, physics, chemistry or electrical engineering. (A limited number of students in Agriculture, Education, Household Economics, Geology, Agriculture, B.Sc. Nursing, Pre-Medical and Dentistry.) The most secure grants from other funds. Normally, such grants would not exceed $100, but it may if necessary be supplemented by a loan up to $200."

Delivery Of Wheat Terminates Friday

Grain company officials stated that Friday is the last day to market old crop wheat from farm to elevator. After Friday, the wheat left must be fed to stock or disposed of to other farmers. An order has also been given the wheat board, that farmers holding wheat in elevators, in prospect of attaining a higher price will find their storage tickets voided and settlement made Friday, on a basis of a sale to the wheat board at present market prices. New crop wheat has been set at 80 cents a bushel, instead of 70 from August 1. As yet, prices at shipping points have not been set.

Sgt. D. G. Henderson Is Killed In Action

Sgt. David G. Henderson, son of D. G. Henderson of 7708 83 avenue, has been killed in action in operations with the R.C.A.F., an Air Force casualty list issued Friday states.

Getting Around

Continued from Page Eleven construction of a fleet of huge cargo planes and the setting up of a new supply board to handle the problem. Senator Lee declared: "It is folly to try and build ships faster than Hitler can sink them."

The senator may be dead wrong in his assertion and it is to be hoped that in the meantime, the time it would seem to be the part of wisdom to proceed with haste in the construction of such ships of the air.

It is already being argued that aerial cargo fleets would themselves face attack by enemy fighting planes. There is no doubt that this would occur if the Axis were able to interfere. But once U.S. production of planes reaches total capacity the United Nations are assured of mastery of the air.

Two other factors weigh heavily in favor of aerial transportation. Both are factors of speed and time. Hours instead of weeks and days enter into the calculations of the skyways shipping routes as compared to the sea lanes of the world oceans. Speed of replacement puts the plane way ahead of the surface ship.

The relatively smaller carrying capacity of the plane is also offset in two important features. When a ship sinks beneath the waves it carries a great deal more cargo with it than when a cargo ship is shot down. And there is a whole lot more material in the sea going to waste itself. Real air power does not mean bombing and fighting planes only.

Officer Appointed

Promotion of Lt.-Col. J. A. MacDonald, M.C., Calgary, former company commander in the Edmonton Fusiliers (Active) to command of the Canadian Armored Corps training centre at Dundurn, Sask., was announced Friday.

Physical Display Will Be Given By Summer Students

Mr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Pritchard and Miss Davidson have arranged to have their students give demonstrations in folk dancing, rhythmic exercises to music, pyramid building and tumbling.

Parades Cancelled

Parade for A Company, South Edmonton Battalion, V.V.R. scheduled for July 31, has been cancelled, according to Capt. A. J. Huff, officer commanding. He also stated that all parades until Friday, Aug. 1, similarly would be cancelled.

The absolute decrees were granted to Gottlieb Sumanek from Lena Sumanek, and to Elli Kallinen from Askel V. Kallinen.

Alberta Waits Reply From B.C. About Japanese

No reply has as yet been received from the British Columbia Security Commission to a query from the Alberta government as to Japanese labor that might be available to meet a serious farm help shortage in this province. Mr. MacArthur stated.

More than 17,000,000 bushels of grain, including 12,000,000 bushels of wheat, have been shipped over the line since the crop year opened on August 1 last. The grain movement is about the same as last year.

Premier At Calgary

Premier William Albert was in Calgary Friday. On Sunday afternoon he will address a meeting of the Calgary Proletarian Bible Institute. He will be back at his office in the Legislative buildings on Monday.

That many Alberta farmers would refuse to employ Japanese in the harvest fields, Mr. MacArthur said he had no knowledge that such an attitude is held by farmers in this province.

"We have made no survey, but I do know that farmers in the growing areas are highly satisfied with the Japanese as workers," the agriculture minister said.

The B.C. security commission is said to be against any plan to move Japanese to other parts of the Dominion on a temporary basis. It is contended that any plan of "loaning" Japanese to the province would return them later, would cost too much.

Northern Area Expects Bumper Grain Harvest

One of the greatest grain crops in the history of the Peace River district will be harvested this year if growing conditions continue favorable. Mr. MacArthur, general manager, Northern Alberta Railways, stated Friday after his return from an inspection trip to Dawson Creek. He was accompanied by W. C. Owens, Western, assistant to general manager, C. N. R. Westermans.

Livestock shipments continue to be heavy and there is every prospect that the steady stream of livestock will be continued this year. Cattle shipments during the period June 30, a total of 1,390,000 head of hogs were shipped from the north country over the N. R., an increase of approximately double the shipments last year. The cattle shipments during the period show a small increase. More than 17,000,000 bushels of grain, including 12,000,000 bushels of wheat, have been shipped over the line since the crop year opened on August 1 last. The grain movement is about the same as last year.

Maintenance work on the line is continuing steadily with considerable ballasting being done on the main line between Edmonton and Medicine Hat.

Expect Boost Export Of Eggs 100 Per Cent.

Export of Alberta eggs to Great Britain is expected to be increased by 100 per cent by next year, it was stated Friday by C. W. Travers, provincial poultry commissioner.

The commissioner said it was expected that a quota of 100,000 cases would be filled in 1952, which means that here in this province have a heavy schedule of egg-laying. This will mean a total of 144,000,000 eggs in 12 months.

All eggs are dried and powdered in eastern Canada plants before being shipped overseas.

Department of agriculture has application forms printed now for farmers who wish to have government approval of their flocks.

Upon receipt of application inspectors will check premises and flocks and cull birds and test them for disease.

Here Are Scenes Made Under Fire On Desert Front

Complete destruction of the Renault works near Paris, battered by a devastating R.A.F. raid in March, was established beyond doubt by "ground pictures" smuggled out of occupied France to London, one of which is shown here. The Germans had claimed that little damage was done to the works which makes tanks, trucks and staff cars for the German army. The works will remain unuseable for many years.

New Lift For Army's Bombers

Capable of totting 60 tons of aircraft, huge new Army Air Force crane, demonstrated at Wright Field, Dayton, O., will help keep 'em flying by clearing fields of wrecked planes during attack.

Nazis Attack Mast-High

Nazi torpedo bombers swoop down to mast level over Allied convoy carrying material to Russia in Barents Sea battle which took place early in July.

Seasoned Americans For Uncle Sam

Uncle Sam is doubly happy to welcome these fighting nephews into his fighting forces. They're Americans who joined the Canadian Army before U.S. entry into war. Released so they could fight with their compatriots, they're being sworn in to the U.S. Army by Capt. Donald L. Wood somewhere in England.

New Lancaster In Action

Britain's great, new, four-motored Lancaster bombers are blasting Germany in broad daylight. These huge planes carry tons of bombs each and have been used in recent days to blast industries in the Ruhr valley.

His wrists in handcuffs, Pte. Prescott F. Dennett, 33, is pictured leaving the St. Louis, Mo., jail on his way to arraignment on sedition charge. He helped organize the Make Europe Pay War Debts Committee.

Just why flyers should have to climb ropes may be a mystery to some, but it's part of training for British cadets at Lakeland, Fla., School of Aeronautics.

Madeline Brant, of Deseronto, a direct descendant of Capt. Joseph Brant, Mohawk Indian chief, is now a member of the women's division of the R.C.A.F. "I wanted to do my part and this was the only way I could offer my services," she told recruiting officers.

BANNERS FLING

CHAPTER VIII
I've taken a bath. I've brushed my teeth. I've shaved and dressed. But before I tackle my hair, please tell me whether I have a date with you or not—

Bart stood in the doorway, grinning at her. Christie laughed, letting her eyes dwell admiringly on her handsome husband.

"You've a date with the family—luncheon date. And you won't mind because you'll be the big shot. They're so proud of your uniform, the brass buttons and especially the wings. Get set to tell them how good you are."

"Just as she had foreseen, Mrs. Colton asked scores of questions. "But isn't it lonesome, Bart? All those boys had wives, sweethearts, mothers. They've been accustomed to going about, doing things. Then suddenly, they're dumped into some place with nothing to do."

"Nothing to do?" Bart laughed. "Wouldn't the C.O. like to hear that. He practically spends his time thinking up things for us to do."

"CO—it sounds like a labor organization," Mrs. Colton said. "Commanding Officer—a one-man labor organization. But he's pretty swell and nobody complains."

"Have you a hostess house?" Mrs. Colton continued, "and do you have any fun?"

"Yes," Bart answered both of her questions. "We have shows, field meets, tea dances, suppers—oh, yes, we have fun in between practice flights, wheel drills, aerial review, and the regular routine. That demands me."

"Hold Everything"

"I heard the street car company was getting short of equipment!"

"No, it's worse than that. Stephen doesn't care enough to quarrel."

"Christie didn't speak for a moment, afraid her irritation would show. Of course, Sandra had every right to visit the field, every right to become an entertainer. If she wanted to. If this were not Bart's field, she'd probably agree that it was a good idea."

"I hope I'm not going to be one of those detestable creatures—a jealous wife," she thought. "Bart simply wouldn't stand for it. He would have a contempt for women of that type, too. Anyway, how do I know she plans to give me competition. Bart isn't the kind to play both ends."

"She lifted her eyes from her plate and smiled at Bart. "Imagine Sandra would be pretty good at that," she said. She thought Bart looked relieved."

"A moment later, Christie glanced at her wrist watch. "Hate to run," she said. But there's a meeting of my surgical dressing unit. I'm the instructor, Bart."

"Good for you," Bart looked doubtful. He added, "What am I supposed to do?"

"Jan, you and Mother keep Bart," she said. "But there's a meeting of my surgical dressing unit. I'm the instructor, Bart."

"I'm leaving my coat," Jan said, turning to go. "It's turning hot as blazes." She looked at Christie levelly. "Steph is fortunate in having you for a little girl scout."

Christie, Jung Jan's cat up mechanically. Funny, Bart hadn't told her that he stopped by SANDY's apartment around 5.

Bart was at his mother's the next morning when Jan came by the apartment.

"You're all bones again," Christie said seriously. "You and that claret hair—and I other. Know why. Something on your mind?"

"Jan was staring out of the window, moodily. She wheeled around. "Why don't you run around more with Bart when he's at home, instead of letting Sandra amuse him?"

"You forget I have a quota to meet," Christie work—she broke off. "Sandra? What in the world do you mean?"

"We all landed at Sandra's yesterday afternoon. She was having a party—a good one, too. You should have seen the ridiculous ski she put on, and you should have seen her showing your husband a new jacket."

Christie frowned. "It doesn't sound dignified for an officer," I think he forgot he was an officer and was just a man," Jan replied.

"Why are you talking like this, Jan?" Christie asked in a low voice.

"Because I feel all mean inside. I guess," Jan's voice sounded bitter.

"You've been quarrelling with Stephen?"

"No, it's worse than that. Stephanie doesn't care enough to quarrel."
